Community Representative for London City Airport's Consultative Committee

Background

The membership of the London City Airport Consultative Committee (LCACC) comprises representatives of local communities, local and public authorities, the airport and airport users.

The function of the Committee is to provide a forum within which those with an interest in the airport can discuss matters relevant to the operation of London City Airport and its impact, either positive or negative, on those affected.

The Committee is not a decision making body but an organised forum to inform the diverse range of stakeholders of current issues relating to London City Airport and the aviation industry and seek feedback.

The Committee liaises between the airport operator and its users and those affected by its use with the object of resolving matters of concern which arise from time-to-time. It is not a forum for those opposed to the existence or legitimate operation of the airport.

London City Airport is seeking nominations for a volunteer from each of the following communities neighbouring the airport who would be willing to serve on the Committee for a period of three years:
